Alvarinho and Melgaço Alvarinho and Melgaço

In the riverside area, on the left bank of the Minho River, Melgaço boasts numerous wineries, estates, and producers of Alvarinho wine. Upon entering the region, whether coming from Monção or Spain, you can admire the vineyards planted in magnificent amphitheaters on the mid-slopes in a unique microclimate that combines Soil, Sun, Struggle, Wisdom, and Serenity. These represent a wine of art and life. Born in an exceptional terroir from a singular grape that only grows in the Iberian Peninsula below 600m altitude, Alvarinho wine results from a limited and exclusive production. Crafted by those who cherish the cultivation of vines and the excellence of wine, Alvarinho stands in a class of its own, and cozy spaces where you feel at home! Discover your own. The landscape is stunning, and the word "paradise" fits perfectly.

The Alvarinho Wine Route, with particular emphasis on the Melgaço region, offers beautiful landscapes and adventure, a place of well-being and great food, with welcoming people and cozy spaces where you feel at home! Discover these breathtaking landscapes, welcoming people, and cozy spaces where you feel at home! Crafted by those who cherish the cultivation of vines and the excellence of wine, Alvarinho stands in a class of its own and cozy spaces where you feel at home! Visit a local farm in the region and sample regional delicacies.
