Itinerary

Almond Trees in Bloom Almond Bloom

We will pick you up at the meeting point (to be agreed upon) and take you to the Upper Douro region, to appreciate the spectacle of almond trees in bloom. In a walk along the slopes covered by clouds of flowers that gently fall to the ground, creating a pink snow-like carpet illuminated by the sun. The pleasure of the walk we suggest through the slopes of the Côa Valley is only rivaled by the delight of savoring the magnificent local products, such as almonds, olive oil, or DOC wines. You can also visit the Côa Museum and marvel at the diversity of the art created by Paleolithic hunter-gatherers. At the end of the day, we will drop you off again, at the meeting point with your soul full. Come along!
